PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Temple conducted Shrimad Bhagwat Katha by Swami Anantacharya in January 1993. His discourse was well attended by many Temple members.

Swamiji during his discourse reminded practically everyday that everything in this universe belongs to God and it is our privilege to enjoy it momentarily. Ownership of anything is illusion. Therefore Swamiji preached all of us to share our blessing with all the less fortunate.

We all should participate in making our Temple a strong institution by donating generously so it can serve those who need our help here in the USA or abroad.

Special Thanks

The Temple organized Bhagwat Katha by Swami Anantacharya was a great success. Swamiji explained the Bhagwat in simple Hindi language and interesting way. We thank Swamiji for giving us this opportunity to understand the Bhagwat better.

We also thank the following members for their help and support during this program.

Santosh and Tek Chand
Rita and Brahma Goel
Tapasya and Arun Jain
Sudha and Dharambeer Sinha
Geetanjali and Baren Talukdar

TEMPLE DIRECTORY - CORRECTIONS ON YOGA ARTICLE

I would like to express my regret that there were several typesetting errors and omissions in the Yoga article I wrote for the Membership Directory 1992-1993. Please use the following errata.

Paragraph 2: Jnana Yoga is the path of knowledge instead of the path of service. Insert after Jnana Yoga (path of knowledge), "Bhakthi Yoga (path of devotion)" and "Karma Yoga (path of service)".

Paragraph 3: Misspelling of "Swamy Jyotirmayananda."

Paragraph 4: The word "boo" should be "book."

Paragraph 5: The word "her" should be "here."

Paragraph 6: Misspelling of "Soorya-Namaskar." The 11 pictures showing the different poses are omitted. Please refer to a book on Yoga or contact me if you need to.

Paragraph 9: Line 3 refers to "13 & 14" which should have been a reference to Saravangasana (shoulder stand) and Hala (plough) Asana.

Paragraph 10: Misspelling of "around."

Thank you.
